I am pleased to recommend Ramon Magana. I have known Ramon for two years, he took my Honors Spanish 2 course, and he is currently taking AP Spanish. The courses I currently teach are Spanish 2, Honors 2 and AP Spanish. Ramon is a quiet, hardworking, and very responsible student, he completes his assignments on time, he is respectful, and a team player. Ramon works eagerly and he has demonstrated a personal interest in his grades, his accomplishments, and his future.

One of his greatest strengths is his excellent background in the language, which he is open to polish and learn more to better himself. Another strength I have witnessed in Ramon is his diligence with tasks at hand, always giving his best efforts. Ramon monitors his grades regularly and his progress in class, when he happens to be absent in my class, he makes up the work promptly.

Ramon has the qualities of an excellent addition to a team, or to work independently, since he is self-motivated and a self-starter by taking initiative on completing the required assignment. Once more, I am very confident that Ramon possesses the valuable qualities you look for in an addition to your team.
